COACHING STAFF

JAMES ARMSTRONG
HEAD COACH

1st Season at Auburn
7th Season Overall
Alma Mater: Edinburgh College (2000)

Former Auburn associate head coach and Mississippi State head coach James Armstrong was named Auburn head soccer coach by Athletic Director John Cohen on Tuesday, Dec. 3. Armstrong, who was on staff at Auburn from 2013-18, returns to the Plains after taking Mississippi State to unprecedented heights since becoming head coach in 2019, leading the Bulldogs to the 2024 Southeastern Conference Championship and consecutive NCAA Sweet 16 appearances.

"My family and I are incredibly excited to return to Auburn University! I am deeply grateful to John Cohen, Jared Benko, Djenane Paul, and the search committee for offering us this amazing opportunity," Armstrong said. "I look forward to connecting with the student-athletes and beginning this exciting new chapter for Auburn Soccer. War Eagle!"

Armstrong, who was appointed head coach of the Bulldog soccer program in January 2019, led the program to its first SEC regular season championship this season with a perfect 10-0-0 conference record, becoming only the fourth team in league history to accomplish the feat. The winningest coach in program history, Armstrong led Mississippi State to a 19-3-0 overall record in 2024, marking the highest win total in school history while finishing the regular season ranked in the top five nationally. For his efforts, Armstrong was named the 2024 SEC Coach of the Year.

In six seasons, he directed Mississippi State to a 62-35-18 overall record and a 36-20-11 conference mark, while leading the program to three consecutive NCAA appearances. In the past three years combined, Armstrong's 43 overall wins were third among SEC schools and his 19 conference wins were the second most in the league.

"We are extremely excited to welcome James and his wife Casey and daughter Olivia back to Auburn, a place he called home for six years prior to his time building Mississippi State into an SEC Championship program," Cohen said. "He is not only one of the top coaches in our conference, but one of the best nationally. James is an incredibly hard worker who has recruited and developed players at the highest level. We look forward to James competing for championships here on The Plains."

While at Auburn, Armstrong served as an assistant and associate head coach, overseeing some of the most productive offensive seasons in the program's history. During his six seasons on the Plains, Auburn made the NCAA Tournament five straight seasons, advanced to the second round four times with a pair of Sweet 16 appearances and an Elite Eight in 2016, the program's best postseason finish.

In his role with the Tigers, Armstrong worked with midfielders and forwards, helping the program score 121 goals from 2014-16, the most in a three-year stretch at Auburn in a dozen years. During the team's record-breaking 2015 and 2016 seasons, which saw Auburn advance to its first Sweet 16 and Elite Eight in consecutive years, the Tigers amassed 85 goals, which tied for the fourth most in a two-year span in program history.

In Armstrong's career on the Plains, he helped coach six attacking players to a total of eight first and second-team All-SEC honors and four SEC All-Freshman team honorees. Auburn also had a forward or midfielder named first team All-SEC in four straight seasons.

During his tenure at Mississippi State, Armstrong coached some of the best in the country as he had three players earn USC All-America, 10 players named to the United Soccer Coaches/NCSAA All-Region Team, 14 All-SEC team members, and placed 133 players on the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

Amstrong's incredible 2024 season came on the heels of record-setting seasons in 2022 and 2023. The 2023 season featured back-to-back wins over ranked opponents while advancing to the SEC Tournament semifinals for the first time, culminating in the program's first Sweet 16 appearance.

"I would also like to express my heartfelt thanks to the Mississippi State community for the unwavering support we've received during our time in Starkville,' Armstrong said. "The relationships we've built with the student-athletes, staff, and fans will always hold a special place in our hearts."

In recognition of their exceptional leadership, the Mississippi State soccer staff was named the 2023 NCAA Southeast Staff of the Year by United Soccer Coaches. The team was also ranked 14th in the nation by both United Soccer Coaches and TopDrawerSoccer, marking the first end-of-season ranking in program history.

Academically, the team achieved a remarkable GPA of 3.65 for Fall 2023, the second best in program history. They led the SEC with 25 academic selections, and 15 student-athletes earned Top Dawg honors with perfect 4.0 GPAs.

The 2022 season was one of the most successful in the program's history to date as Armstrong led the Bulldogs to their first SEC tournament win and first NCAA tournament win. During the 2020 season, shortened by COVID-19, his squad made the SEC Tournament for the second consecutive year—a first in school history.

Armstrong's impact was immediate in his first year with the program in 2019, ending a 15-year SEC Tournament drought, becoming only the second active SEC head coach to achieve this feat in his inaugural season. Under his leadership, the team posted school records for goals, assists and points in SEC play, with 16 players recording points—the most since 2008.

Armstrong's coaching career began with Lonestar SC in Austin, Texas, where he helped establish the club and placed over 200 players in collegiate programs. He also worked as an equipment manager for the U.S. Soccer Federation, contributing to the U-19 Women's National Team's victory in the inaugural FIFA U-19 Women's World Cup in 2002.

A native of Yorkshire, England, Armstrong holds a bachelor's and master's degree in history and politics from the University of Edinburgh and has attended North Carolina for a study abroad program. He possesses a USSF A License and a National Youth License. Armstrong and his wife Casey, have one daughter, Olivia.

DRAGO ĆERANIĆ
ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

1st Season at Auburn
8th Season Overall
Alma Mater: Mount Mercy College (2010)

Drago Ćeranić, a world-class defensive specialist, joined the Auburn soccer program as an associate head coach on Dec. 10, 2024, the first staffing addition under the leadership of head coach James Armstrong.

Ćeranić joins the Tigers after spending the previous season as an assistant coach at Mississippi State University. While in Starkville, Ćeranić worked closely with the Bulldogs' defense that quickly proved itself as the best in the nation.

Thanks to Ćeranić's elite defensive vision, Mississippi State earned a clean sheet in 73% of its matches over the course of the 2024 season, including 12 of 13 matches at home. They went on to lead Division I and smash the program record with 16 total shutouts. The Bulldogs also ranked second in the nation with a 0.45 goals-against average.

Ćeranić's backline led the Southeastern Conference in every defensive category and conceded just two goals over all 900 minutes of league play. As a reward for the dominant defensive effort all year long, Mississippi State earned the SEC Goalkeeper of the Year, Defender of the Year and Midfielder of the Year.

Prior to coaching alongside Armstrong in Starkville, Ćeranić spent the 2022 and 2023 seasons as an assistant at Mercer University. During his time at Mercer, Ćeranić guided the Bears to 19 wins and an appearance in the SoCon Tournament semifinal.

Under his tutelage, Mercer remained undefeated at home in 2022, boasting seven wins and three draws with a remarkable 34-7 goal differential.Before his stint at Mercer, Ćeranić served as an assistant coach at the University of Iowa, where he played a pivotal role in the team's achievements, notably contributing to the 2020 Big Ten Championship title.

KELLY MADSEN
ASSISTANT COACH

3rd Season at Auburn
21st Season Overall
Alma Mater: South Alabama (2008)

Kelly Madsen, who has over 10 years of experience including the last five as an assistant coach at Syracuse, was named an Auburn soccer assistant coach by head coach Karen Hoppa on June 27, 2023.

In just her second season with the program, Madsen elevated Auburn's attack to heights it had not seen in over two decades. Auburn accumulated a whopping 164 points on 54 goals and 56 assists, both numbers that ranked top-three in the league. Auburn's goal production ranked as the second-best in school history and the most since the Tigers put away 56 goals during the 2000 season. Madsen's dynamic attack struck for multiple goals in 13 of 21 matches and was shut out just once.

Madsen coached both attacking midfielder Anna Haddock (first team) and forward Olivia Woodson (second team) to All-SEC selections during the 2024 season. Haddock scored five goals and assisted 13 others to become the program's new career leader for assists with 44. Woodson led the Orange & Blue squad with 11 goals as the first Auburn woman in double-digit scoring figures since 2016. She also added three assists.

Thanks to new tactics implemented by Madsen, 17 players recorded a goal contribution in 2024. Eight players tied or beat their previous best for goals scored in a single season.

In her first season on The Plains, Madsen was tasked with coaching the Auburn forwards and spearheading the offensive attack. In 2023, Auburn saw an increase in total goals scored, goals scored in SEC play and goals scored in road matches. Seven different Tiger forwards created goal-scoring plays over the course of the year and laced shots on frame at an astounding 0.475 clip, the best team average since the 2012 season.

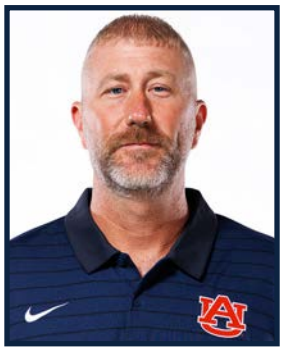
Prior to Syracuse, Madsen coached at Rice, where she assisted all areas of the program and served as the recruiting coordinator. She joined Rice from Stephen F. Austin University, where she spent seven seasons.

Off the field, Madsen organized the team travel and equipment, served as the program's academic coordinator and was the director of camp operations. Madsen's work helped SFA retain its status as the top women's soccer program in the Southland Conference. In her seven seasons with the Ladyjacks, the team won five regular season conference titles and played in the SLC Tournament final a total of six times.

Madsen's coaching career began at the University of Dubuque (Iowa) as she served as an assistant coach from 2009-11. She helped lead the Spartans to their first Iowa Conference Tournament title and first NCAA Tournament appearance in 2009.

A native of Pensacola, Fla., she starred as a midfielder for the University of South Alabama from 2004-08. Madsen was a First-Team All-Sun Belt honoree and was selected to the Sun Belt All-Tournament Team. Over the course of her collegiate career, she scored 22 goals and assisted on 20 others. After graduation, she played professionally in England for Portsmouth Women's Football Club and in the W-League for the London Gryphons (London, Ontario).

Madsen currently holds her NSCAA National Diploma and NSCAA Level III GK Diploma. She obtained both a bachelor's and master's degree in communications. She is married to Patrick Madsen, the brother of Tigers' associate head coach Ben Madsen. The couple has three dogs, Fergie, Rooney and Ted.



BEN MADSEN
ASSISTANT COACH

14th Season at Auburn
23rd Season Overall
Alma Mater: Lincoln Memorial (2003)

Ben Madsen was named assistant coach on Feb. 29, 2012. Madsen joined Auburn from Iowa State, where he was an assistant coach for four years and served as the Cyclones' head assistant since 2009.

Since Madsen's arrival on The Plains, the Tigers have made consistent improvements along the defensive front and have had 16 All-SEC selections along the back line, including a two-time All-America in Kala Faulkner (2014 and 2015) and SEC Defender of the Year and Second Team All-American in Alyssa Malonson (2021).

Auburn has ranked in the top half of the SEC in both goals against average and shutout percentage eight times in Madsen's tenure, including every year from 2013-16. Before Madsen arrived, the Tigers were eighth in defense in 2011.

Auburn's defense got off to a white-hot start during the 2024 season, issuing eight consecutive clean sheets to begin the year, which included shutouts over No. 5 Clemson and No. 17 Ohio State. Auburn joined Oklahoma State as the final two Division I programs that had yet to concede a goal in the first 720 minutes of the season. The Tigers concluded the year with 12 total shutouts, matching the program's single-season record originally set in 2003.

Defender LJ Knox was recognized as a Second Team All-SEC player in 2024, Auburn's first center back to receive the honor since Sarah Houchin in 2020. Goalkeeper Maddie Prohaska also turned in a dazzling season, becoming the new program leader with 36 career shutouts. Prohaska wrapped her final season on The Plains with a 0.75 goals-against average, her third season with a sub-one average.

In 2023, the Auburn defense posted seven shutouts for the second consecutive season. Four of the team's clean sheets came in league play, including a shutout in the regular season finale at SEC East Champion Georgia. Madsen led the Tigers' starting goalkeeper Maddie Prohaska to a historic season in which the senior achieved a pair of milestones, 25 career shutouts and 250 career saves.

The Orange & Blue back line showed resounding dominance during the 2022 campaign as it held its opponents to a single goal or less in 17 of 18 matches, including a national-leading streak of 1,348 consecutive minutes of not allowing multiple goals to start the season.

Madsen's defenders tallied a 0.72 goals against average in 2022, the second-best clip in the 30-year history of the program. Goalkeeper Maddie Prohaska notched a 0.74 GAA of her own, tying All-American Megan Rivera's mark set in 2004 for the second-best total by an individual Auburn player.

Along with mentoring Alyssa Malonson to earning SEC Defender of the Year and Second Team All-America honors in 2021, Madsen guided Auburn's defensive unit as a whole to seven shutouts, marking the ninth season under Madsen with seven or more clean sheets. The Tigers allowed just eight goals in the first 10 contests of the season with the D-Team playing a major role in leading the team to a program best 11-game winning streak and tied for the second best start to a season in program history (6-0-0).

The 2020-21 season marked arguably the team's most impressive defensive performance as the Tigers tied the program record by allowing only 15 goals, including three in eight contests during the spring, and turned in the second-best goals against average (0.78) in program history.

Madsen mentored freshman goalkeeper Maddie Prohaska, who led the league in save percentage (.843) and turned in the fourth-best goals against average (0.80) in program history, headlining a defensive unit that pitched eight shutouts on the season. Prohaska earned SEC All-Freshman Team honors, while senior defender and team captain Sarah Houchin was named Second Team All-SEC, United Soccer Coaches Third Team All-Southeast Region, United Soccer Coaches Second Team Scholar All-Region and CoSIDA First Team Academic All-District.

Madsen guided a relatively new back line and graduate transfer goalkeeper in Kate Hart in 2019 and helped lead the unit to six shutouts on the season, including a pair in SEC play. All six shutouts came in the team's first 12 contests, and the Tigers were holding opponents to a 1.00 goals against average to that point in the season.

A year prior, Madsen and the Tigers turned in nine shutouts, tying the 2002 and 2015 squads for the fourth most in a single season in program history.

Madsen played an instrumental role in helping Sarah Le Beau cap off her career with the SEC record for consecutive starts by a goalkeeper (87). Her 87 career starts also tied the conference mark for starts by a goalkeeper. He also mentored Second Team All-SEC honoree Alysaa Malonson, who not only played a role in the nine shutouts, but also ranked third in the league in assists (8).

In 2017, Madsen helped guide the Tigers back line to eight shutouts, which is tied for the sixth most in program history, and mentored a pair of All-SEC performers in first-team selection Caroline Bado and all-freshman honoree Alyssa Malonson. Bado was also named Third Team All-Southeast Regoin by the United Soccer Coaches and was joined on the team by Le Beau. Additionally, five of the team's eight shutouts in 2017 came during conference play, which matched a SEC program record.

In 2016, Madsen guided a trio of All-SEC performers in Kiana Clarke, Karli Gutsche and Le Beau. In total, Auburn amassed seven shutouts, including four in SEC play and the NCAA Tournament. Despite being focused on keeping opponents off the board, players who saw time along the back line combined for 14 points, including two game-winning goals.

The Tigers set a program record with 17 wins in 2016, and much of that could be credited to keeping high-powered offenses off the board. In total, Auburn held the opposition to one goal or fewer in 17 matches.

In 2015, Madsen was instrumental in the development of All-SEC choice Sarah Le Beau. In 23 matches between the sticks, Le Beau ranked third in the SEC with a 0.987 goals against average, pacing the freshman to multiple accolades by the league.

Madsen's tutelage of Le Beau paced the first-year keeper to post seven shutouts, ranking second among league foes.

Working with defenders and goalkeepers, Madsen helped the Tigers post the most saves in the Southeastern Conference in 2013 with 135 and register the third-best saves percentage at 82.4.

Madsen was the recruiting coordinator and goalkeepers coach at Iowa State and helped bring a recruiting class that increased the program's win total for three straight seasons from 2009-11. In 2011 the ISU club tied the program record for shutouts in a season with nine and he coached goalkeeper Maddie Jobe to two Big XII Player of the Week awards. On the recruiting trail his 2010 freshman class accounted for 92 percent of the team's points and scored every goal in Big XII conference play.

Prior to ISU Madsen was an assistant at the University of South Alabama from 2004-08. During his stay in Mobile the team made four Sun Belt Conference tournament appearances and finished as the conference runner-up in 2005. He also coached the 2004 First Team All-Sunbelt goalkeeper.

Madsen started his coaching career with the Lincoln College men's team from 2002-03 before moving on to Alabama-Huntsville from 2003-04. At Lincoln he trained the 2002 Collegiate Conference of Central Illinois First Team All-Conference goalkeeper while at UAH he recruited the 2004 Gulf South Conference Freshman of the Year.

Madsen has been very active in youth soccer acting as a Region II and Region III goalkeeper coach, a U14 girls head coach and an ODP assistant and co-head coach.

Madsen earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Lincoln Memorial University in 2003, where he also played from 1998-01. He has a NSCAA Advanced National Diploma and a NSCAA National Goalkeeper Diploma.

Madsen and his wife, Ann, have a daughter, Margaret Kate (Maggie) and a son, Beckett.
